Marcia Wright

Marcia,

I hope your remaining years in high school are a blast. Remember to keep in touch, okay. Here's a little poem for you:

"Understanding"

It really is hard
I know you can see
'cause right now you don't feel
The same way as me.
I know I should
I know I have to,
I have to get over you
I just wish I could.
Thinking of being with you
Is such a nice thought
Then I come back to reality,
And see what it really has brought.
Being strangers
will not be fair.
no, that just can't be because I know you care, maybe the future will hold something new but during this time
you will be you.
Right now the only way for me to be happy and make my heart mend
Is if I can have you
As A Friend!

TO: MARCIA
A Really Beautiful and Sweet girl. I wish I could draw got to know better Hopefully
Next year

Love Steve

Sincerely "JG"

P.S. I'm very sorry HA HA. (I'm so great)

Take care of yourself and stay out of trouble.

Love,
Anna Garcia

GLORY DAYS

School. Despite our complaints about it and our frequent wishes that we could get away from it, all of us would probably admit that we often enjoyed being at Glendale High School and even missed it when we were away. Glendale High School was important to us because it was there that we found our friends and where we grew daily through the studies we pursued. Most likely, we would one day look back on our high school years and indeed see them as our Glory Days.

And they were good, glorious days because in ways big and small, we found glory in all that we did. Of course, glory is always relative, but each of us achieved some degree of glory, one way or another, during our time at Glendale High School. Throughout our years we found glory in a variety of ways; we found glory in the classrooms, glory in our friendships, glory in representing GHS, and, above all, glory in being ourselves. Yes, our GHS years were our Glory Days.

Glory In The Classroom

For many at Glendale High School, glory was found in the classroom. For some glory arrived in the form of grades of one on assignments, exams, and report cards. For others, glory was found in smaller achievements — finally learning the difference between a sentence and a sentence fragment; seeing the insides of a frog without getting sick; typing 75 wpm with no errors.

We complained about homework, about classwork, about exams, and about teachers who gave too much of all three, but we felt a sense of accomplishment when our efforts paid off in the classroom — whether the accomplishment was making a one (or barely passing!) or just getting through the day with no detentions. In our own varied ways, we found glory in the classrooms of Glendale High School.

Glory In Our Friendships

Friends were another source of glory for all of us. Whether it was having a friend or being a friend, we all experienced the glory that is friendship. Our friends were the people who listened to our gripes and complaints and who shared our joys and successes. They were the ones who advised us on matters ranging from what to wear to the Prom (or on who to take!) to what to do with our lives after high school. Our friends made our year at Glendale High School memorable and, more importantly, fun.

We found friends all over the place and some of the friendships we formed would last forever while others ended in a few short weeks. While our peers were our most obvious friends, we could also count teachers (some more than others) among those who really cared about us and were willing to help us, laugh with us, and sometimes even cry with us. And a lot of us came to realize that perhaps our best friends were rarely on the GHS campus yet played a major role in our educations. These friends-would we ever think of them as our best friends?-were the parents who prodded us to do homework we didn't want to do, who seemed to sometimes gang-up on us with the Dean and the teachers, and who worried about us when we were late getting home from school or a basketball game.

All of our friendships had their ups and downs, but when our years at GHS are over and we've long forgotten how to use a cosine or where to find Madagascar, we'll remember our friends and the antics we shared. At GHS we found a great deal of glory in our friendships!

Glory In Representing Glendale High School

Glory at Glendale High School could also be found in representing our school. People achieved glory by proudly marching with the Glendale Band and receiving high marks for their performances. Still others hustled on the football field or on the volleyball court proudly wearing Glendale uniforms. For the majority of us, however, just being a part of Glendale High School was glory enough as we wore our jackets or shirts emblazoned with our school colors and emblems. Glendale was our school and we found glory by letting others know where we were from and how we felt about it.

We argued with our friends from other schools over whose school was better (of course it was always ours!), and even if we lost a few games or hit a few wrong notes, we never felt ashamed. We held our heads high and supported our school. For all of us, representing Glendale High School brought glory.

Glory In Being Ourselves

Throughout the year we found glory in being ourselves at Glendale High School. Some of us gloried in our personal accomplishments in athletics or academics while others gloried in other more unique ways. We gained personal glory through being the best ditcher or the class clown, the champion pizza eater or the best dresser, the best excuse creator or the paper and pencil supplier for the entire second row, second hour.

Among the hundreds of GHS students, each of us found personal glory at Glendale. Most important, we found that we were special people who had a great deal to offer our classmates and our school. Most of us realized that we were special parts of Glendale High School, and together we made GHS a special place to be while gloriously being ourselves.

Glory In Being A Part Of Over 60 Years Of Tradition

In an area and a district where the average age of schools is about ten years, Glendale can glory in its long history and tradition. Established in 1908, GHS is now 78 years old and Homecoming, which began a few years later, is a tradition of over 60 years. Homecoming '85 was one more festive occasion in the long tradition of GHS Homecomings.

Although the Homecoming Game was played on Friday, November 8, the week leading up to the game, Spirit Week, saw school spirit in full force. Students dressed up as tourists, Hawaiians, Disney characters, and '50's boppers all to show their spirit. The week also brought late nights of planning and working on Homecoming Floats.

On Friday, activities began with the Pep Assembly where Andre Wilson was awarded the title of "Mr. Irresistible" for collecting over 40 garters from GHS females. Immediately following the Pep Assembly, the Parade through downtown Glendale began, and the floats which had taken so much work during the week were finally put on display.

The major Homecoming Activities began Friday night when the Cardinals took the field against the Sunnyslope Vikings. Despite a defeat on the football field, the evening was a winner. During half-time, KUPD's "Wild One," Dave Pratt, accompanied by Curtis Johnson and Freeway Mooner, announced the Homecoming Court. Crowned Queen and King were Debi LaGrow and Paul Enriquez while First Attendants were Debbie Crawford and Lennard Lopez, and Second Attendants were Gina Nelson and Scott Erickson. The winning float was the Junior Class entry.

The half-time ceremonies ended with red and gold balloons floating into the air, and fireworks exploding near the field. The '85 Homecoming continued the GHS Homecoming Tradition gloriously.

Mr. Hutchison Enjoys G.H.S.

GLENDALE HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL-Mr. Robert Hutchison

Mr. Hutchison was our principal here at Glendale High School during '85-86, but he didn't start his education career in Arizona. Mr. Hutchison was born in Herrin, Illinois, and he attended college at Southern Illinois University. He taught at Herrin High School where he also coached football, basketball, and track.

In 1960, Mr. Hutchison and his family decided to move to Arizona when he was offered a job here at Glendale as a government and economics teacher. Here, too, he coached football, basketball, and baseball. Eleven years later he became the GHS Dean of Students; then he became the Assistant Principal of Activities for 6 years and next Principal. He has served in that position for 8 years. In the spring of 1986, Mr. Hutchison made the difficult decision to retire. Upon retirement he hopes to spend more time with his family which includes his wife of 32 years, three sons, and his first grandchild.

Mr. Hutchison says the best part of his career was working with young people. He liked teaching much more than he liked being principal because he had more time with students. He wishes he had the chance to help the students who need it more often and even after he retires he hopes to continue working with young people in some way.

Many people have asked Mr. Hutchison why he stayed at Glendale instead of taking a job at a newer school. He says that even though Glendale is 78 years old, he still thinks it's the best school in the district, and he likes the size, the number of students, and the history of the school.

Mr. Hutchison admits that when he looks back on his life, he doesn't regret a thing. If he could do it all again, he would do everything the same. He has had a very happy and successful life and a rewarding career.

Mr. Hutchison has given a great deal of himself to Glendale High School and its students. We wish him the best of everything as he leaves GHS for a "life of leisure!"

After many years as a GHS Cardinal, Mr. Hutchison has put together a large collection of cardinals which he proudly displays in his office.

Paperwork requires a good deal of Mr. Hutchison's time.

Administrators Assist In Pursuit Of Excellence

The GHS administrators are the people who provide the needed support for the running of the school. Mr. Threadgill is the Dean of Students and the person students hope they never have to visit on business. The Dean's job is to enforce attendance and discipline policies, one of the biggest responsibilities on campus.

Mr. Bill Smith is Glendale High School's Assistant Principal of Athletics. He is in charge of athletic events including scheduling of games, referees, and time. In addition, he is in charge of all the school's budgeting, transportation, and maintenance.

Mr. Ron Gardner is our Assisant Principal for Student Services. He is responsible for the design of the academic curriculum and all student services such as class schedules.

The GHS Business Department consists of four instructors who teach students skills that will be used throughout their lives. The classes include typing, accounting, D.C.E., general business, and data processing and business machines. The department uses a mastery approach to learning in its courses since students must master a skill before moving on to a new skill.

The Industrial Arts Department offers classes which are quite popular with many GHS students. The department's classes include drafting, woods, metals, and automotives. In the future the department hopes to develop a computer electronics class. Mr. LaGrow, the Chairman of the department, says that the three instructors in the department try to acquaint students with technology, industry, and leisure time activities related to Industrial Arts.

The department had a change during the first semester when Ms. Cochran resigned to move with her family to California. She was replaced in early November by Ms. Jacalyn Romey.

Mr. Glenn Beeson, chairman of the department, is proud of the teachers in his department and the work that they do. He believes the success of this department is because the teachers, like all those at GHS, are highly qualified, care for students, and want students to succeed.

P.E. And Safety Ed. Departments Keep Us Healthy

PHYSICAL EDUCATION-Ms. Melba Bacon

The GHS Physical Education Department helps make students physically aware of themselves and also helps to relieve some of the stress school can cause. The department teaches classes in girls' and boys' P.E. for Freshmen, systematics for boys and girls, advanced P.E., modern dance, and health.

Safety Education, or Drivers' Education, teaches safe driving skills to students. The class teaches knowledge of traffic laws, insurance laws, driver fitness, and all aspects of good driving, Mr. Ken France is the classroom instructor while Ms. Peggy Peck teaches behind-the-wheel training. Behind-the-wheel takes students out on the street to practice skills studied in class.

Library, Foreign Language, And Social Studies Expand Our World

Ms. Pat Winters is the lady students see when they walk into the library. Ms. Winters keeps the library going with the help of her library aids. These students sign up for library aid when they set up their class schedules and work in the library one class period a day. The work they do is worth ¼ credit per semester. Library aids do just about everything there is to do in the running of a library including working at the circulation desk, filing library cards, and shelving books. Ms. Winters says that without the help of the 18 library aids she has, the library would fall apart!

Glendale High's Social Studies Department strives to prepare young adults for the responsibility of living in a free society and to help students to be aware of the past and how it has shaped the present. The department offers classes in world history, geography, U.S. history, government, and economics.

This year the Foreign Language Department experienced an increase in enrollment which was probably due to the new college requirement of at least two years of a foreign language for admittance. GHS offers Spanish, French, and German classes in which students learn language as well as the history and the culture of the countries where the language is spoken.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT-Ms. Mary Santos-Pippin, Mr. Larry Tualla, and Ms. Marianne Hensley.

SOCIAL STUDIES-Mr. Gus Pappas

SOCIAL STUDIES DEPARTMENT-Ms. Patricia Smith, Mr. Gerry Stein, Mr. Dan Ham, Mr. Dick Eberly, and Mr. Greg DeVille.

The GHS cafeteria is an important part of campus life since it is there that many students eat each day. Eight adults and 16 students make the cafeteria run daily. The money that the cafeteria makes goes towards more food, salaries, and equipment. Throughout the year the cafeteria offered a special program for senior citizens. For only one dollar, they could enjoy a meal at the school with the students.

The maintenance/custodial staff consists of 13 people. Whether we realize it or not, these people did a lot for the school throughout the year. These were the people who picked up what we threw down, kept rooms clean, and made needed repairs. They also helped students prepare for dances and other extra-curricular activities by setting up chairs or any other needed materials.

Classes

Class Of '86 Anticipates Future While Remembering Past

As over 200 members of the Class of 1986 began the year, we looked forward to the life as a Senior and to our last year at Glendale High School. For many, two overriding goals existed: enjoy this year and graduate on June 3, 1986. Although most of us would say that Mr. Eberly was one of our favorite people at GHS, no Senior wanted to be sitting in the stands with him on Graduation Night watching our classmates receive their diplomas!

As Seniors we faced the trials and tribulations of U.S. Government, learned to apply for scholarships in Ms. Claunch's English 7-8, or struggled with the laws of the universe in Mr. Spicher's physics class. Many of us played football, volleyball, basketball, baseball, golf, softball, or tennis for the last time as Glendale Cardinals while the rest of us cheered them on. Some of us played our last tune on the Glendale High football field or at an ASU Band Day, while others took their last bows on the stage of the Glendale auditorium in CACTUS FLOWER or GUYS AND DOLLS.

We also spent time building our last float for Homecoming and sponsoring a dance after a football game. In preparation for graduation we ordered caps and gowns, spent weeks designing our own unique graduation invitation, and planned the Senior Banquet which was held in late May. And of course, we all looked forward to the graduation exercises and the Senior Trip to California.

We worked, we played, we goofed off, we practiced, we laughed, we cried — all for the last time at Glendale High School. These were indeed our Glory Days — no matter where we found our own personal glory. We know there will be more glory days to come, but those spent at Glendale High School will always remain special — and perhaps the best!

Senior Survey

In early December of 1985, the Senior Class completed a survey for the Yearbook. While the results are by no means scientific, they do reflect the majority views of the Seniors who responded to the survey.

1. What is your favorite thing to do on a Friday or Saturday night?

   As the years go by, the majority of the Seniors still like to do the same thing on weekends. The favorite thing to do is to be with friends and party.

2. What's your curfew?

   When you have kids and it's time to set a curfew, you'll be unhappy to know that the average curfew is midnight or later.

3. What is your favorite kind of pizza?

   Everyone knows that after the party is over, everyone goes to the nearest pizza place. The favorite topping for the pizza at GHS is pepperoni.

4. What's your favorite TV show?

   The highest rated TV show in America during '85-86 was The Cosby Show. With GHS's great taste, Seniors chose the same show as their favorite.

5. What's your favorite movie of '85-86?

   The '85-86 school year was filled with many special movies that we all caught at the theaters. The two most popular movies among GHS Seniors were Rambo-First Blood II and Back to the Future.

6. How much do you usually pay for a movie?

   Although the prices we paid for movies ranged from 50¢ to $5.00, the majority of us usually paid about $4.00.

7. What brand of jeans do you wear?

   Just like there are different strokes for different folks, there are different jeans for different teens. At GHS, the Seniors wore a wide variety of jeans but the most popular by far were Levi's 501 Jeans.

8. How much do you pay for your jeans?

   The prices for jeans ranged from $12.00 to $40.00. The average price for a pair of our favorite Levi's was $20.00.

9. What's your favorite place to shop?

   Most of the favorite places to shop among GHS Seniors were either clothes stores or shopping malls. The top vote-getter was Metro Center.

10. What is your favorite soft drink?

    Coke and Pepsi challenges were held all over the world. They battled it out here at GHS as well but neither won. Dr. Pepper was the Class of '86's favorite.

11. Do you own a car?

    More people said no than yes.

    If so, what kind?

    After digging through people's dream cars and people's real cars, Cameros and Datsuns were the most popular on the GHS campus.

12. Do you have a job?

    The majority of the jobs listed by Seniors were fast food jobs. The most popular place to work was MacDonald's.

13. What's your favorite musical group?

    The music choices ranged from Alabama to Prince to Dio. The two most popular groups were Van Halen and the Scorpions.

14. Do you plan to attend college after graduation?

    Although a few people didn't want to go to college or just weren't sure, most of the Senior Class planned on going to college.

"These are your daily announcements. . ."

"Good morning! These are your daily announcements!" These are the words GHS students heard every morning during '85-86 right after third hour began. That was Candi Murri and Sherri Spino preparing to present the daily announcements.

Candi says she got the job of making annoucements by simply going to the front desk and asking to do it. Sherri made announcements last year after asking for the job and chose to continue this year.

Every day at about 9:55, Candi and Sherri headed up to the office to read over the announcements before going "on the air." As they presented the announcements, they took turns, back and forth, reading each announcement.

Candi and Sherri often felt that sometimes not enough people listened to them, but they still liked what they did. Both are members of the class of '86 and say that if they were here another year they would do it all again!

-Patty Wrona

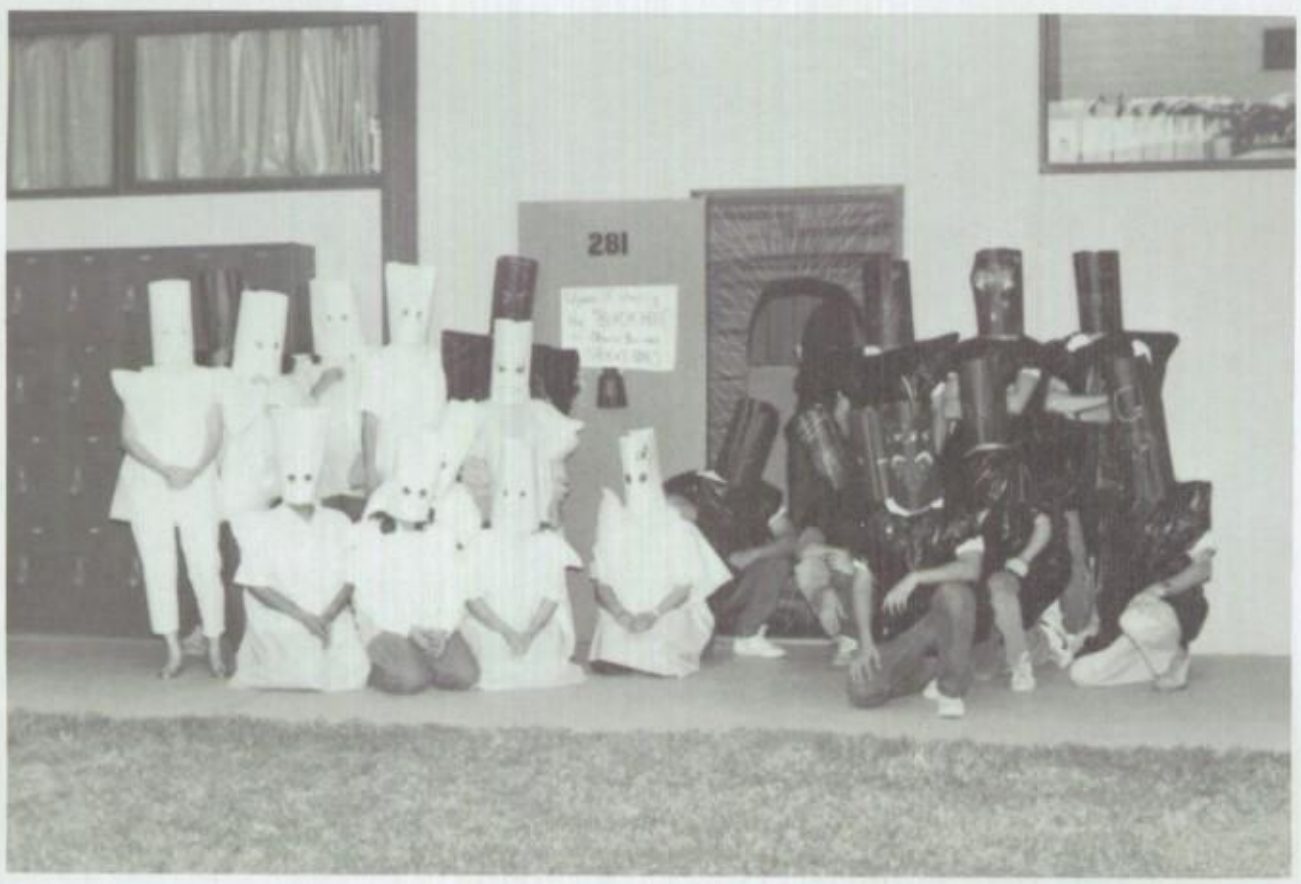
Have A Great Day!!



For the ASB sponsored Halloween '85 Costume contest among third hour classes, Mr. Spicher's third hour physics class dressed in very unusual costumes. Trying to keep a physics theme, Room 281 was transformed into a black hole, naturally the final resting place of spent gravitons. The students represented the gravitons. (The girls wore white and the boys wore black.)

For all the students who are not physics students, gravitons may be fundamental particles which explain gravitational interaction in a way that fits in with quantum mechanics. Understand?

Though the class didn't win the first place pizza party, (which they were sure they deserved), their costume idea was indeed original.

Black Hole Discovered At GHS On Halloween '85!

Exchange Students Join Class Of '86

This year at Glendale High we had three foreign exchange students from Mexico, Germany, and Japan.

Ambrosio Omar Araiza was one of them. Omar, or "Bocho" as he was known to most students, was born in Mexico City, Mexico, February 28, 1967. He is the oldest of three children. He has two younger sisters, ages sixteen and thirteen. At the age of six, Omar, his parents, and his two younger sisters moved to Delicias, Chihuahua (Mexico). There he attended Secundaria Leyes de Reforma, then Albert Einstein High School and graduated June 22, 1985.

Omar had always wanted to be involved in a foreign exchange program, but it wasn't until his Junior year that the decision was made to come to America following graduation. He arrived at G.H.S. through the Delicias-Glendale Sister-City Foreign Exchange Program.

Omar was a member of the Delicias Club (at Apollo High) and attended the AASC (AZ Associated Student Council) Convention at Saguaro High School in December. He also participated on the G.H.S. Cross Country and Tennis teams.

While here in Glendale, he resided with Dr. Lindberg and his wife Fresia. He was able to return home over the Christmas vacation, to spend the holidays with his family in Delicias. In his spare time, he enjoys swimming, playing raquetball, listening to music (KOPA), and his favorite sport is soccer.

Omar's future plans include attending the University of Technology of Chihuahua, and pursuing a degree in Industrial Engineering.

In comparison to his school in Chihuahua, he stated that Glendale's campus is larger, but population wise, is much smaller. Omar adapted rather quickly and found G.H.S.' atmosphere to be in general, friendly and helpful. Omar undoubtedly enjoyed his stay here at G.H.S., however, he admitted to being "homesick" on several occasions throughout the year. But over all, he felt it was an excellent learning experience!

Helmar Wallrabenstein was another foreign exchange student here at G.H.S. this year. Helmar was born in Georgsmarienhütte, Germany on November 17, 1968. He is also the oldest of three children. He has a sister who is thirteen years old, and a brother who is two years old.

Back home, Helmar attended Gymnasium Oesede (High School). Following graduation here at G.H.S., Helmar will return home to Germany to complete his final three years of his high school education. Then he will attend military school for a few years. Following military school, he hopes to attend a university and pursue a degree in a field of science, such as space technology or electronics. Helmar came to Glendale through the ERDT Foreign Exchange Program.

Helmar also attended the AASC convention at Saguaro High, and participated on the G.H.S. Cross Country team. In his spare time, he enjoys reading, skiing (downhill and cross country), hiking, dancing, and computers. He also enjoys reading and discussing politics and current events. He likes pizza and Mexican food.

About his experience here at G.H.S., he states that American high schools are totally different in comparison to schools in Germany. "Classes are much smaller, and the entire campus consists of mainly one building. There are 20-25 students in each class and approximately 1200 students total," he says of his German school. He also felt that the classes here were much easier than in Germany. He enjoyed his stay here at G.H.S. and also found it to be a great experience.

Many students returning from summer vacation look forward to seeing their friends once again. They usually talk about what they did, where they went, and who they met over the summer. Some seniors say their vacation was exciting. It couldn't be as exciting, however, as Yoko Nishizawa's. Yoko is an exchange student from Japan. She arrived in Arizona on August 8, 1985. One week later, she joined Glendale's band. Yoko plays the trombone. When asked how she feels about Glendale High School, she replied, "I really enjoy the school. The teachers are nice and they help me when I don't know something. The students are real friendly and they seem to be close." Yoko also enjoys the fact that Glendale has male students. In Japan, the girls are separated from the boys in school. Yoko spent her school year living with Senior Theresa Durham and her family.

We certainly hope that the foreign exchange students found their stay here at G.H.S. to be an enjoyable and pleasant one. And we wish you-Omar, Helmar, and Yoko-the best of luck in your future endeavors!

- Diana Felix and Pat Hernandez

Exchange Students Omar, Helmar, and Yoko point out the three very different parts of the world from which they came.

Foreign members of the Class of '86 included Helmar Wallrabenstein from Germany, Yoko Nishizawa from Japan, and Omar Araiza from Mexico.

Howdy! I am really glad we got to be such good friends and I'm gonna keep in touch! 937-7985

Juniors Plan Prom At The Lakes

Approaching our last year at GHS, the Junior Class began perhaps our busiest selling year. Our biggest project, as it is for Junior classes everywhere, was making money for and putting on the best Junior-Senior Prom ever! To accomplish this goal, we sold boxes and boxes of candy and worked every home football game selling hot dogs and cokes, all under the guidance of Mr. Gus Pappas.

With the money we raised, we put together a night to remember for the Juniors and Seniors of GHS. All our efforts at selling candy and hot dogs paid off as we danced away the evening at The Lakes. The Junior-Senior Prom did indeed live up to its theme. We'll remember that evening in May "Forever." Michael Allen '87

Sophomores Become More Involved

The Sophomore Class entered the '85-'86 school year no longer the youngest group on campus. We continued taking the required classes, suffering through subordinate clauses in English, dissecting frogs in Biology I, and memorizing everything about every major event in history in our World History classes.

In addition to our classes, we became involved in making money for the 1987 Junior-Senior Prom. To do this, we sold jackets in the fall, T-shirts in the spring, and candy all year long. We also entered a float in the Homecoming Parade (a second place winner!) and sponsored a dance after a basketball game.

To many of us, our Sophomore year was tough, but we managed to survive and even to thrive. After all, we were no longer Freshmen!

Freshmen Find A Place At GHS

The Class of 1989 began our first year at GHS getting adjusted to a new campus and to the new demands of high school. Many of us spent the first few days of school trying to find classrooms that seemed to be purposely hidden from us, and the first few weeks falling into the infamous "freshmen holes" and fighting our stubborn lockers.

During the year we began our studies of English, science, and math which would follow us throughout our years at GHS, and we also became involved in other activities. In October the class sponsored a dance and used the money made to build a Homecoming float in November. In December we held a candy sale to raise more money.

All the activities we became involved in helped us find our place—and our glory—at Glendale High School.

Shawn Adjusts To GHS

Shawn Klein was a new student at GHS this year and he quickly became a part of our school. But finding his way around campus was even more difficult for Shawn than it is for most freshmen. Shawn is blind.

Although he was born in California, Shawn moved to Arizona when he was only two and has gone to schools here in Phoenix throughout his school career. He says he likes Glendale High better than all the rest because he gets to meet more people here.

Shawn approaches his studies here at Glendale in a unique way. He learned how to use the Braille System when he was five and has been using it ever since. To do his homework he uses a Braille writer which has six keys to form every letter in the alphabet. He's also learning how to write and to type. To do math Shawn uses special beads and to tell time he has a talking clock and a Braille watch. To find his way around campus, Shawn uses a cane to help him tell if something is in his way and to help him locate where he is by the sound the cane makes. When used in different parts of the campus, the cane makes different sounds when tapped against the concret and Shawn is able to tell where he is. To help him learn where he is and how to get to his classes, Shawn has a mobility teacher who works with him after school.

When not studying, Shawn enjoys talking on his C.B. where he is known as "Motor Mouth" because he likes to talk so much. He also likes to "watch" his television and listen to rock and roll music.

Shawn is definitely a remarkable student and a credit to Glendale High School.

Activities

GHS Band Continues To Garner Honors

Resplendent in new uniforms, the GHS Marching Band upheld its fine reputation during the 1985 season. At the University of Arizona Band Day, the group rated "Superior." At both the Arizona State University Band Day and the State competition, the Band received "Excellent." All those early morning practices in the chilly weather indeed seemed to pay-off for the Band as they performed successfully at competitions and for the GHS crowd at home football games.

For Drama Club And Thespians All The World's A Stage

Plays build a person's self-confidence and esteem. The actors get a chance to make new friends and build lasting friendships." This is Ms. Goldstein's view on the benefits of the Drama Club here at GHS. The Drama Club consists of students interested in all aspects of play production.

Those students with the most experience, at least 100 hours of work on a play, become members of the Thespians. This group is in charge of the other students in the plays and helps out when others have problems during the productions.

Yearbook Staff Records Our Year

As the school year began, a large and enthusiastic group met and began planning the 1986 Yearbook for Glendale High School, under the direction of their new sponsor, Ms. Reynolds. Together the group talked about their ideas and responsibilities and jumped right in to taking pictures and writing articles. Many of the once large group, however, fell by the wayside as the year progressed and only the most devoted workers remained at year's end. Those who remained on the staff found that the job of putting together a chronicle of a school year is no easy task as they worked during the week as well as on weekends. But, despite the hard work, the group agreed that all their efforts were worth the work when they saw their months of hard work presented in the final product.

The '85-'86 school year will remain special to everyone on the Yearbook Staff because of the memories they shared, and the Yearbook they created.

Organizations Provide Support For Sports

During the year, three groups work to support some of the sports teams here at GHS. These groups are the Mat Angels, the Spikettes, and the Stat-Brats.

Each year the wrestling teams are supported by a group of girls known as the Mat Angels. The girls keep score for each match both home and away while cheering the teams on. The Mat Angels are sponsored by Mr. Hernandez.

The Spikettes' job is to provide support for the Cross Country Team in the fall and the Track and Field Team in the spring. The Spikettes are a volunteer group who keep score, time, keep number cards in place, and hand the thirsty runners water. Their most important job is to encourage the team members throughout the meets.

The Stat-Brats was a new organization formed this year by Coach Scott. They are the busy people at the basketball games who record everything that happens on the court. The Stat Brats provide a valuable service to the team and the coaches agree that the group is indespensable.

GHS Thespians Present Cactus Flower

The curtain came up for the Drama Department's fall production of Cactus Flower on Thursday, December 12, 1985, at 7:30 p.m. As the curtain came down for the last time on Saturday, December 14, 1985, cries came up from an ecstatic cast and crew, and applause came from the audience and director, Ms. Esta Goldstein.

Members of the cast were Margaret Garrett as Toni Simmons; Ted Nelson as Igor Sullivan; Lea Longo as Stephanie Dickinson; Cathy Boggs played Mrs. Dixon Durant; Edwin Kolpack was Dr. Julian Winston; Mark Koan was Harvey Greenfield; and Dave Roels played Senor Arturo Sanchez. Also in the cast were John Page as a customer and Steve Weltsch as the Music Lover.

The play is centered around Toni, Igor, Stephanie, and Julian. In the beginning, Julian is in love with Toni, but has lied to her and told her that he is already married and has three kids, just to keep from marrying her. Toni hates a lie so when Julian decides to marry her, he can't tell her the truth about his not being married. Instead, he tells her he is getting a divorce. Toni insists on meeting his wife to make sure she does not hate Toni and think of her as a "homewrecker."

Enter Stephanie, Julian's nurse. Very much against her wishes, she goes to see Toni and convinces her that she is Julian's wife and that she wants a divorce also. After the visit, Toni is sure that Julian's wife still loves him. While Toni is jealous of Stephanie, Julian is jealous of Igor, Toni's next-door neighbor.

Intermixed with all the lies and funny jokes are a lot of hilarious characters who made the play fun. The play finally ends with Toni and Igor as a couple, and Julian and Stephanie as a couple.

Many thanks for the success of this show went to the crews who worked very hard. Guys And Dolls Takes Stage In April

This year's musical production at Glendale High School was Guys and Dolls, directed by Ms. Goldstein. The play was presented on April 10, 11, and 12 and consisted of 43 cast members, 20 orchestra members, and approximately 25 crew members.

Guys and Dolls takes place in Manhattan, New York, in the late 1940's. Gambling was a way of life in those days and the self-image of many a man was thought to be predetermined by his maker or his I.O.U. Sky Masterson, played by Matt Rauschkolb, makes a $1,000 bet with Nathan Detroit, played by Edwin Kolpack, that he can take any "doll" on a date. Nathan chooses Sarah Brown, played by Sara Miller, to be the guinea pig. Sarah Brown happens to be a missionary and normally would never go on a date with a gambler, but Sky Masterson proves too difficult for her to refuse. In the end he breaks down all her defenses.

Nathan Detroit, on the other hand, needs to win the $1,000 bet immediately so he can maintain his gambling status. He is engaged, and has been for 14 years, to Adelaide (Lea Longo) and she is tired of waiting for her wedding day and wants to get on with the marriage. She's also determined that Nathan should stop his gambling life and become a respectable guy.

After many trials and tribulations, both couples manage to find each other as well as true happiness.

Cardinal Court Brightens January

In January, the Student Senate sponsored the traditional Cardinal Court Dance. In the past, the Cardinal Court was chosen from the Senior Class only, but this year the Senate decided to give each class a chance to participate. Out of the top 10% of the Senior Class a King and Queen and Attendants were chosen. One set of attendants was chosen from the top 10% of the Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior Classes. Each class voted on its representatives.

GHS Football Teams Persevere

Glendale Varsity attempts a catch.

The Varsity Football season began with high hopes. The players began by lifting weights and participating in the passing league during the summer. Those who were dedicated did well during the season.

The season opened on a good note with Carl Hayden. Even though the team didn't win, there was noticeable progress over last season. As the season progressed, however, things took a turn for the worse. The team kept their heads up and played hard, exhibiting a lot of character and class. According to Coach Hernandez, "The season should in no way reflect upon the team. They are true winners. They never quit."

Swimmers Qualify For Divisionals

Annie Hoogendoorn strokes to the finish line.

Girl's swimming was offered again during the '85 season at GHS. Although the team was a young one, they showed a lot of talent. Five swimmers qualified for the Skyline Divisionals: Michelle Mizer, Kristin Merkel, Molly Renner, and Tiffani Gessel in the 200 Medley Relay; Molly Renner in the 100 Freestyle; Michelle Mizer in the 200 Freestyle; and Michelle Mizer, Kristin Merkel, Annie Hoogendoorn, and Tiffani Gessel in the 400 Freestyle Relay. High point swimmer for the season was Molly Renner, and Michelle Mizer received the honor of most improved swimmer for the season. The team was coached this year by Ms. Peggy Peck.

Despite Losing Season, Volleyball Teams Show Potential

Three volleyball teams represented Glendale High School during the "85 season. The Freshman Volleyball Team had a fair season this year with a couple of close matches and one win against Cortez. The team started out with a lot of members but lost several as the season progressed. By the end of the season the team was showing a great deal of improvement. The Freshman Team was coached by Ms. Molly Snyder.

The Junior Varsity Volleyball Team also experienced a losing season while improving with each game. "The win-loss record of the team does not show its true potential. Half of the team had never played before and each girl did an incredible job on her skill improvement," Ms. Prado, J.V. Coach, said of her team.

This year's Varsity Volleyball Team didn't have a very successful season although they did bring home one win. The '85 team was small but showed talent and improvement by the end of the season.

Cross Country Has Winning Season

Once again the Glendale High School Cross Country Team had a winning season. The team ended the season with 13 wins and only 2 losses. The team placed 3rd in Divisionals and 11th at State. Coach Espinoza's runners worked hard and once again proved that they are number 1.

Among the outstanding runners on the team were Billy Egnatoff who placed 2nd in the Divisional Meet and made the All Conference First Team, and Ryan Hinchcliff who finished 8th in Divisionals and made the All Conference Second Team.

This year's cheer was divided into two squads. One squad was chosen for Football season and another was chosen for Basketball.

Each year the GHS cheer lines support the Football and Basketball Teams. They also perform for the student body at our Pep Assemblies.

The girls and their sponsor, Ms. Prado, gave much of their time and energy to keep our spirit high.

Badminton And Golf— Small Numbers, Big Ambitions

Badminton was once again brought back to Glendale during the 1985 season. Although the team was few in numbers and inexperienced, they were very hard working. All the hard work paid off because by the end of the season all four players had improved their games. The team was made up of one Freshman and three Seniors and was coached by Mr. Lassley.

1985 was the first year for a Glendale Golf Team in the school's history. Under the direction of Mr. France, the team consisted of three Sophomores, one Freshman, and one Senior. The team looks good for next year and could be very competitive.

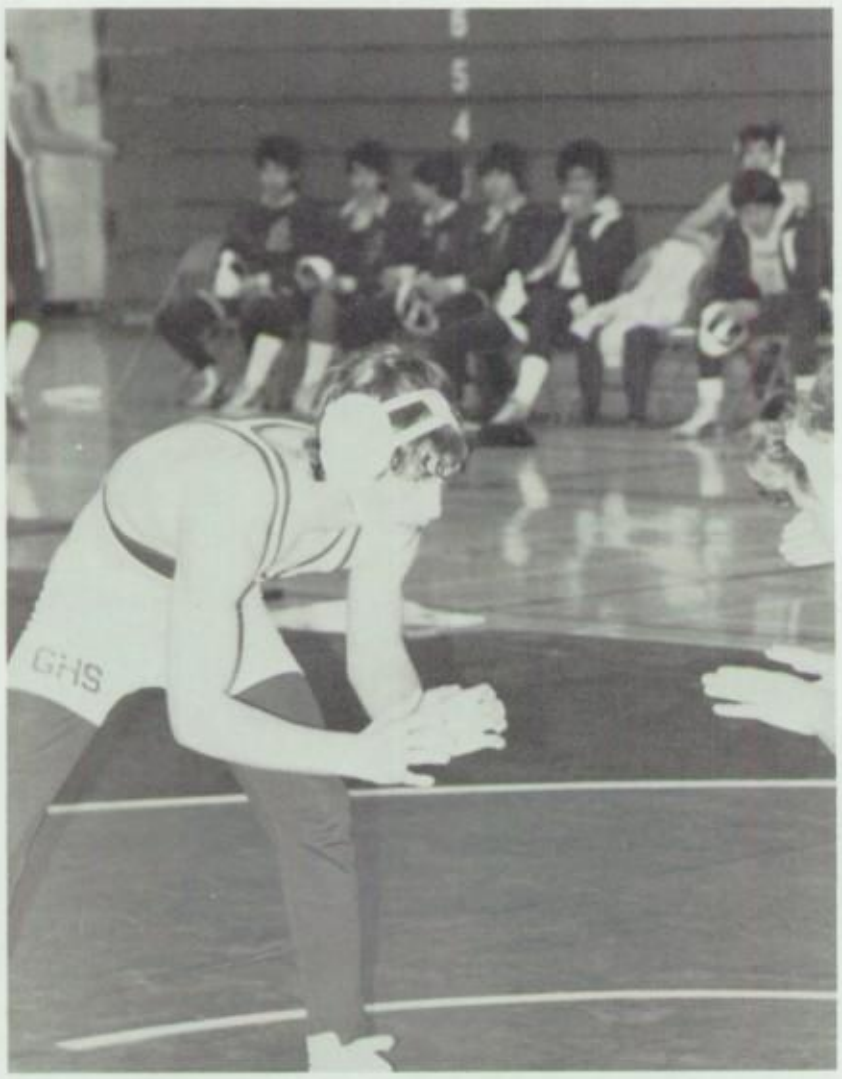
Wrestling Sends 5 To State Tournament



This year's Wrestling season was a building one. The Varsity consisted of two Frosh, four Sophomores, five Juniors, and four Seniors. Qualifying for the State Tournament were Ruben Frausto, Mike Indelicato, Kenny Aneas, Charlie Martinez, and Tim Palmer. All will return to the team next year. According to Coach Threadgill, "Hard work in the off-season should pay off for the Cardinals next season."

Basketball Teams Show Steady Improvement

"Stance! Contest! Shot! Rebound! Pass! Defense!!!!" are the sounds fans may have heard coming out of the Glendale High Gym from November through February. Throughout this year's hoop season, the basketball teams were busily improving their skills and by season's end had become very competitive with their AAA Skyline Division foes.

Coaches Roger Scott, Robert Zahn, and Greg DeVille were all pleased with their teams' hard work and effort and are looking forward to banner years ahead at GHS. As Coach Scott said, "Hard work, pride, and never giving up were the hallmarks of your '85-'86 Cardinals."

This year's Varsity Softball season was one that showed the talent of the girls playing. They began their season with their first victory over Deer Valley, 7-4. The team had four other victories against South, Cortez, Independence, and Sunnyslope. The team, coached by Mr. Holveck and Mr. McKnight, worked hard and played well together.

The J.V. season was a learning experience for the Junior Varsity team members. Coached by Ms. Beebe Clark, the team was made up of mostly Freshmen playing at the J.V. level. With a win over Washington, the team ended with a 1-11 season.

Girls' Basketball Teams Have Challenging Season

Glendale High School's Varsity Basketball returned four Seniors for the '86 season. They were Kim Stockton, Karen Stockton, Maria Escudero, and Debi LaGrow. The team also saw a lot of spirit from its five Juniors, Sherry Aneas, Michelle Headrick, Julie Hoffman, and Holly Storm. The '86 season promised to be a challenge but after an excellent summer season, the team expected the same from its regular season.

The Glendale Girls' Junior Varsity had high expectations for the '86 season, too. Jolinda Miller, Nina Coleman, Patty Stacey, and Becky Sanchez lead the Cardinals in their efforts to prepare for the future.

Track And Field Teams Steadily Improve

The Girls' 1986 Track and Field Team was one that was energetic and talented. Compared to past seasons, the team increased in numbers which meant the team was able to pick up more points at their meets. The season had four returning veterans and with many newcomers such as Freshman Dee Troth, the season looked good. Ms. Prado summed up the Girls' season with, "The girls were absolutely marvelous!"

This year's Boys' Track and Field Team showed their strength under the direction of new head coach Greg DeVille. The team was strong in distance events, the quarter mile, and the hurdles. Throughout the year the team worked at rebuilding the jumping events under the leadership of a new assistant coach, Mr. Ray Shivelhood. Good potential was shown in the sprinting and weight events.

January 28, 1986. America's Space Shuttle Challenger exploded at 11:39 EST after its launch from the Kennedy Space Center at Cape Canaveral, Florida, and we all became witnesses to history, tragic history, as we watched the moment on television and watched it again and again as it was replayed throughout the evening. On board the Challenger were Francis R. (Dick) Scobee, Michael J. Smith, Ronald E. McNair, Ellison S. Onizuka, Judith A. Resnik, Gregory Jarvis, and S. Christa McAuliffe, a Concord, New Hampshire high school social studies teacher who was representing the "Teacher in Space Project."

Throughout the nation, people reacted with disbelief and shock. In a program that had gone so well for so long, a tragedy had finally occurred and seven people had lost their lives. For the first time in the lives of many of us, born into a time when men in space is routine, we realized how risky space exploration really is.

The seven Challenger astronauts were people just like us who gloried, like we do, in family, friends, and in being themselves. And, they found glory in representing the space program and their country while pursuing their dreams of reaching into the unknown of space and bringing back knowledge to the Earth. They were people who enthusiastically and courageously assumed the challenge, and the risk, of space exploration in the pursuit of knowledge. To most of us, they were in life perhaps only names mentioned briefly on television, in the newspaper, or in our science classes. In their deaths, they became symbols of taking a chance, daring to dream. Speaking to the nation on the day of the tragedy, President Ronald Reagan said, "I know it's hard to understand, but sometimes painful things like this happen. It's all part of the process of exploration and discovery. It's all part of taking a chance and expanding man's horizons. The future doesn't belong to the fainthearted. It belongs to the brave." They assumed a challenge and died doing what they had studied for, trained for, and dreamed about. We can learn no greater lesson from them than that we, too, must dare to dream and to pursue our dreams.
